

Oct 07, 2020

A Virtual tour in the National Archives Highlighted on the UAE History

The Deanship of Student Affairs (Abu Dhabi campus) organized a virtual tour in the National Archives, in collaboration with the National Archives (A division of the Ministry of Presidential Affairs), presented by Mrs. Aisha Al Zaabi, Senior educational programs officer.

The Participants watched a 3D documentary video about the United Arab Emirates history, also a group of photos and documents located in the Sheikh Zayed bin Sultan Hall, about the UAE and its auspicious union. In addition to, a tour of the Emirates library and its books.

The virtual tour aimed to enhance loyalty and belonging, entrench the national identity among students, and introduce the younger generations to the history of the United Arab Emirates.

Press Release Link