Al Ain University team achieves the first positions in the Universities League

Al Ain University (AAU) participated in the Al Ain Universities League, which was launched by the UAE University and sponsored by "Mediclinic" Hospital, where the organizing committee of the tournament consists of the student activities coordinators from all the participating universities.

Participants competed in volleyball, basketball, tennis, table tennis, badminton, beach volleyball, fitness and athletics, swimming, and chess.

The AAU team won first place in tennis and fitness, and second place in soccer and beach volleyball.

The tournament aims to consolidate the culture of sports, enhance sportsmanship among the participants, develop students' skills, and maintain a high level of physical fitness.
