

Al Ain University

Professional Development Center > Vision and Mission

Vision

Ensure that the University's faculty and staff are positive contributors to the learning community and are adequately supported and well equipped to deliver their roles; to meet the business needs of the University and are adaptable to the changing context of Higher Education.

Mission

Developing the skills, competencies and knowledge of the AAU community; that are relevant to changing demands of the higher education environment and are based on current and future requirements of the university and community in general.

View Page