

College of

About the College > Dean's Message

Dean's Message

The philosophy of the College of Communication and Media emerges from the general philosophy of the university. The College of Communication and Media is the sixth college in Al Ain University of Science and Technology, it is located on both campuses in Al Ain and Abu Dhabi. As a college we aspire to create a generation of students with distinct and high capacity of the acquired skills in the areas of Public Relations, Advertising, and Journalism according to professional standards and in line with the requirements and the foundations of national qualifications of the United Arab Emirates, and it facilitates the task of graduating students, into the professional world, filled with the knowledge, skills, and ability to analyze according to scientific research and implement all that was learned in the student's learning years in the university.

Dr. Abdulrahman Theyab

Dean of the College

View Page